LOCAL MATTER.

E. C. WOODSON, City Editor

LOCAL BRIEFS.

See the Court notice from Cabarrus county, in which Phillip Fink is plaintiff against Samuel Booth and others.

E. A. Wright, Esq., of Golsdboro, announces himself in our columns this morning as a candidate for the office of Reading Clerk of the House of Representatives.

The Fair has closed, and while we have not space to speak in general terms of its success, to day, justice requires us to mention in advance the thorough efficiency of the Chief Marshal, and his corps of assistants Col. Davis, was the "right man in the right place," and the Committee may well congratulate themselves upon their wise selection.

SPEAKING.—H. A. London, Jr., Greeley and Brown Elector, Senator M. W. Ransom, Major John W. Dunham, L. R. Waddell, Esq., and other speakers, will address the citizens of Johnston county, at Boone Hill on October 30th, at Ingram's on the 31st, at Elevation on the 1st of November, and at Clayton on the second of November. We have no doubt the friends of reconciliation and reform in that section will rally to these places to hear these distinguished speakers.

THE NEW PRESIDENT.—In the selection of Thomas M. Holt, Esq., of Alamance, as President of the North Carolina Agricultural Society, the Society has displayed much judgment. Mr. Holt is closely identified with the agricultural and manufacturing interests of the State, and will prove a most capital officer. He is a native of a family distinguished in the history of the State for energy and skill in farming, and for their success in raising fine cattle, sheep and horses.

ORATOR FOR THE WELDON FAIR.—We are pleased to announce that Hon. Kemp P. Battle, of this city, has consented to deliver the annual address before the Roanoke and Tar River Agricultural Association at Weldon on Thursday, the 31st inst. This is a most capital selection, as Mr. Battle is an able speaker and has a sufficient practical knowledge of farming to enable him to treat the subject in a substantial manner. We congratulate the Society upon his acceptance.

MISS JEANNIE PATTERSON.—We were much pleased to see this charming young lady, who has so many warm friends in Raleigh and Eastern Carolina, in attendance on our State Fair. Miss Patterson is at present the guest of Col. Paul C. Cameron, of Hillsboro, at whose residence she has been sojourning for several days. Our people have a vivid remembrance of her beautiful reading last Spring, and would no doubt be highly delighted to hear a repetition of her recitations. Indeed we have heard a large number of our citizens express the hope that she may find it consistent with her feelings to honor our city again by her admirable performances.

The Charlotte Observer, alluding to Miss Patterson's contemplated visit to the Charlotte Fair, pays her some very handsome compliments, all of which and more she deserves.

POMEROY-SNEDAIR CONCERT.—Our citizens, especially the ladies, will be delighted at the announcement that this splendid Concert will take place again at Metropolitan Hall this evening, with an entire change of programme. Owing to the disadvantageous circumstances under which the manager has labored since the appearance of his troupe in this city, the proceeds of this evening's entertainment will be devoted especially to Miss Viola Pomeroy, the leading attraction of the troupe. The appearance of Miss Pomeroy on the stage, her beauty and personal attractions, are worth the price of admission to behold, not to say anything of her great excellence as an operatic singer. As time and space is dear at the time of this writing, we close this notice, by saying, that we have visited the performance, and are prepared to say, and mean what we say, that the concert at Metropolitan Hall to-night is a rare treat, one that our citizens have but few apportunities of enjoying, and upon its merits alone we ask for them a crowded house.

RELIGIOUS NOTICE.—Owing to sickness at the Methodist Parsonage the bell will not be rung on Sunday, but there will be the usual service in the church, morning and evening.

THE STATE FAIR.—The number of persons, though smaller than on the day previous, was larger than was ever known before on the last day of the Fair. The programme was decidedly the most interesting of the week.—In addition to the reading of the premiums from the stand, four races, three trotting and one running, were announced.

We arrived just in time to witness the

FIRST RACE.

Purse $100; mile heats, for horses that never beat three minutes; best 2 in 3 to harness, $90 to first horse, $10 to second. Three or more to enter, two to start.

E. Pomeroy enters, light roan horse "Strawbery."

D. T. Hervy enters bay horse "Top."

Col. S. G. Hays enters bay mare "Mattie Grass."

"Top" was the favorite from the start, and won easily in three straight heats. Mattie, came in 2nd, and Strawbery 3nd.

Time—3:10—3:12½—2:58½.

SECOND RACE.

Purse, $50, for stallions owned and used in the State; mile heats, best 3 in 5 to harness. $20 cup to first horse and $10 cup to second. Three or more to enter, two to start.

This was decidedly the most interesting race of the week, as the contestants were native stock that only had a road reputation, and the spectators knew that the race would be thoroughly contested. The entries were, Alex. C. Stronach's "Gray Dick," Col. J. M. Heck's "Black Hawk," Dr. Ruby's sorrel stallion.

After more than a dozen false starts, the trio finally moved out in the following order: Gray Dick on the inside, the sorrel stallion in the middle, and Black Hawk taking the outside.

It was soon ascertained that the contest was between Black Hawk and Gray Dick; in passing the judges' stand on the first round, these horses might have been covered with a blanket, the sorrel stallion being some distance in the rear. On the second round the contest was indeed exciting; on the home stretch Black Hawk gained the advantage, and passed the judges' stand more than a length in advance of Gray Dick; time, 3:18½.

The horses reported promptly at the stand for tho second heat. Black Hawk showed signs of fatigue from the first heat, Gray Dick on the contrary seemed as fresh and willing as in the beginning. The start was favorable to Black Hawk, but was overtaken and passed by Gray Dick before the end of the first round; notwithstanding the strenuous effort of Black Hawk and his driver to regain his lost position, Gray Dick widened his gap and came out thre lengths ahead; time 3:20.

The third heat was equally as close and exciting as the first, and won by Gray Dick in 3:22.

In the fourth heat, the start was a bad one. Black Hawk started at least two lengths in advance, and Mr. Paxon, the driver of Grey Dick, thought of course the horses would be recalled, and held up accordingly, but receiving no order, was compelled to go through, the advantage thus gained by Black Kawk was never retaken by Grey Dick, and the heat was won by Black Hawk in 3:21½.

The race now stood 2 heats for each, and bets were offered at odds on Black Hawk, with no takers, though the backers of Grey Dick were hopeful, and confident. The start was fair and even, both horses passed the judges' stand and almost at a dead lock; at the ¼ mile post, Black Hawk, was a half length in advance, which advantage he maintained till near the distance stand, where Grey Dick, made a gallent dash, and passed the judges' stand, a length ahead.

The

was a running match. Single dash of a mile, purse $25, for the first and $10 for the second.

Three entrees. Geo. W. Wynne, boy horse; Dunn & Bro., brown horse; and J. A. Porter, bay horse, names unknown. Wynn's horse led off, and would have easily distanced his competitors, but on the last round flew the track, throwing his rider. Dunn's brown then took the lead, and won the race

The

FOURTH RACE

Was a trotting match, best 3 in 5 to harness or saddle.

J Haywood entered Roan Horse, Loafer.

Col. Williamson, of Caswell, enters the Brown Mare, Maggie, rode under the saddle.

This was the most closely contested race of the week, and the prettiest. Loafer won in three straight heats, his best time being 2:39½.

But for usual inaccuracies that occur, in the premium list, by the hurry and haste in publishing too early, we would lay it before our readers to-day, but deem it best to defer till to-morrow.

We will also continue our notice on the general exhibition to-morrow.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.—The Managing Editor acknowledges the receipt of ten dollars from Mr. C. G. Yeates, of Greensboro, N. C., as his contribution to the fund now being raised in the State in behalf of Hon. Josiah Turner, Jr. Mr. Yeates, in enclosing us the amount in a private letter, speaks of the outrage to the Sentinel in terms of severe condemnation.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.—We are requested to announce that E. W. Pou, Esq., Elector at Large, will address the people at Greensboro on Saturday, the 26th inst, at Winston on Monday, the 28th inst.—He also proposes to attend assemblages of the people after the 28th up to the day of election at all accessible points where meetings have already been advertised.

CORONATION BALL.—We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation to attend the coronation ball which is to be given in Goldsboro on the night of the 25th inst. It is given complimentary to the Farmers' and Mechanics Association.

TUCKER HALL.—Molly Bawn, or "the return of the Wanderer," was the play at Tucker Hall last evening. The crowd was as usual, large, and all left the Hall well satisfied with its excellent rendition. Mrs. Watkins as Molly Bawn appeared to unusual advantage, playing the character to perfection. Harry Watkins was perfectly at home in his original character of Wandering Davy, and his fine acting was frequently interrupted with rounds of well-merited applause. Mr. Paul who is fast winning an enviable reputation on the Raleigh stage, as usual played his part well. The other characters, with one exception, were "well up," and the performance a success.

We take pleasure in announcing to our citizens that to-night is set apart for the benefit of our favorite, Rose Watkins, on which occasion will be presented Dion Bonucaults' great Irish drama of the "Colleen Bawn, with new scenery and effects, including the great cave scene. We need not remind our readers that a genuine Dramatic treat is in store for those visiting Tucker Hall this evening, and we feel assured that a crowded house will greet our favorite Beneficiary. The play itself ought to draw a crowded house, independent of the fact of its being the benefit of Rose Watkins.—The Colleen Bawn has never been produced here, and represented as it will be by such finished artists as Mr. and Mrs. Harry and Rose Watkins and their splendid Dramatic Company, we need not say that it will be a Dramatic treat never before witnessed in Raleigh. And as this is the benefit of Rose Watkins and the last appearance of our Southern favorites, let us show our appreciation of true worth and real merit and give our popular favorite a rousing house, thereby showing our appreciation of her endeavors to please those who have favored her with their patronage. The Calleen Bawn will be presented this evening with all the scenic effort requisite for the production of this great play, and cast with the full strength of the Company. Don't fail to see this great play. Go and see Rose Watkins in her great character of Lilly O'Connor, the Colleen Baun and Harry Watkins in his great assumption of Miles NaCoppleen and the full company in the cast. Secure your seats at Branson's Bookstore—go early and secure your seats. Remember it is the benefit of Rose Watkins, and the last appearance of our Southern favorites.

ST. MARY'S ACADEMY.—A friend who attended the Soiree Musicale, of Thursday evening, at the St. Mary's Academy, furnishes us with the following account:

Hamlet besought his father's ghost not to let him "burst in ignorance." I am this morning in far greater danger of mental combustion about the Soiree last night at St. Mary's. And therefore I beseech you give me some brief "scope and verge" to relieve the "pent up Utica" of my feelings in your columns.

By the kindsess of an unknown friend (Heaven reward her!) I was there; staid until 1 o'clock; and my brain ever since has been a chaos, made up of recollections of sweet faces and voices, the confusion of beauty and music, and a hundred enchanting toilets, all in one distraction blent.

Of course, I cannot be coherent about any of it. Every piece of music seemed the last possible superlative of excellence, and yet every succeeding one more exquisite still; and every chorus presented an unconscious tableau compared to the lovliness and purity of which the best effects of the spectacular drama of the professional stage are but dull and faded pageants.

"Ardently modest, delicately pure;
With young delight that wonders at itself,
And throbs as innocent as opening flowers;
Knowing not comment, soiless, beautiful;
Earth and Heaven to them seem one,
Life a glad trembling on the outer edge
Of unknown rapture."

May each and every one of them find its best fulfilment in long and usefully happy futures. May none of them "unbeseem the promise" of her beautious, glorious spring. Reserving to myself the hope to meet again under every bright surrounding of my wishes, every face there seen and forever impressed, I am, if I know myself under such circumstances,

Yours and St. Mary's,
Most obedient serv't.
MECKLENBURG.

P. S.—I understand that some Pagan wretch has named the promenade on these occasions, the "Tread Mill." Let him be henceforth anathama Maranatha, and be this same promenade known hereafter for what it is, Le Rond d' Elysee. M.

THE AGRICULTURAL MEETING LAST NIGHT—THE RIGHT SPIRIT.—The closing meeting of the State Agricultural Association, held in Commons Hall last night, was of the most interesting character, and evidenced a spirit which will make the State Fair what it should be. With a view of removing the grounds and putting up proper buildings, two of our business citizens said they would join a party of one hundred men in giving fifty thousand dollars to this end, or a party of fifty in raising twenty-five thousand dollars, We hope this idea may be taken hold of and successfully carried out.

The meetings of the Society this week have been more largely attended than heretofore.

THE HOP.—The hop at the Yarboro last evening, in brilliancy, surpassed anything of the kind ever given in Raleigh. On no occasion were there ever assembled such a display of beauty. To say that the affair was a grand success, is unnecessary—as Dr. Blacknall and his accomplished wife were never known to fail, and they have in Raleigh won laurels which they should be proud of, and we know our young people owe them a debt of gratitude which they can never pay, and we for one say, let us vote them a hearty return of thanks. We say this, feeling that we anticipate the thoughts of many who have enjoyed their entertainments.

GOLDSBORO FAIR.—The Executive Committee of the Goldsboro Fair has been notified that Governor Walker, of Virginia, will be prevented by sickness from filling his appointment to deliver the annual address before the Society at its approaching fair. Judge Merrimon of this city has accepted the position and will supply the vacancy.

CATHOLIC CHURCH.—No services in this Church to-morrow (Sunday.) Father McNamara is absent, attending the installation of Rt. Rev. Dr. Gibbons as Bishop of the See of Richmond.

Society meeting and Sunday school takes place at the usual hour.

A MASS MEETING.—There will be a Conservative mass meeting at Egypt, in Chatham county, on the 31st inst., at which Judge Merrimon and other distinguished speakers will be present.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

The Cotton Prospects.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.

The following is a synopsis of the statistician of the Department of Agriculture upon the condition of cotton in October:

The cotton prospects has undergone no serious changes since the September report. The weather has been generally good for picking. No violent storms are reported, and the drought has not prevailed. The rain fall in nearly all cotton States exceeding two inches in September. Florida alone reporting fully four inches, and Tennessee three. The devastations of the catapillar have extended further north even into North Carolina, and have involved the top crop partially, and in many places wholly. The influence in the later summer months has been cumulative in its effects, and exhausted vitality is more apparent than in September, yet there are districts which report exemplar from this premature diary, and promise enhanced results.

The effect of fertilizers in advancing the crop in the Atlantic States, and the continued effect of worms and drought in shortening the season of growth, will greatly hasten the close of picking.

In some places the crops are already gathered, and in many others the fields will be clean early in November.

The general average of condition is reduced from 91, in the first week of September to 82 in October. In October last year the average was 75, which was a material reduction from that of the present month. It will be seen that the condition is still placed higher than in last years report for October, while the crea according to our June returns was 13 percent greater.—The State averages are the follows:—Virginia 87, North Carolina 90, South Carolina 86, Florida 75, Georgia 88, Alabama 82, Missippi 78, Louisiana 72, Texas 85, Arkansas 75, Tennessee 90.—The local disparity existing in the condition of the cotton is perhaps more marked than usual of the two counties in Alabama producing most largely both together yielding one ninth of the cotton in the State, Montgomery reports 100 and 50. In Georgia Dawson, the first in amount of production returns one hundred, while Sumter and Lee both large producers give only 66. In Mississippi few prominent counties report high condition; Washington 66, Madison 66. Warren 65 and Hinds 60, while November and Clayborn return 100.

VOTE!

November is near at hand.

We have earnestly urged upon our people the necessity of organization.

We have insisted upon the formation of Greeley and Brown Clubs in every Township in the State.

We have called upon the County Executive Committees to enter actively into the campaign—to see that their respective counties are placed on a system of thorough and effective organization, to the end that every voter be reached and appealed to, and if possible, induced to come out on the day of election, and cast his ballot against Radicalism.

The time for work is nearly over.

In some counties we notice there is an unaccountable apathy.

But little canvassing has been done throughout the State.

With the exception of two or three Congressional Districts, we do not believe a regular campaign has been made.

We wish to impress one important fact upon the mind of each opponent of Radicalism in North Carolina—and that is, it is his duty to go to the polls on the day of election, and vote for Greeley and Brown.

We make this appeal to each person into whose hands this paper may fall, and we ask him not only to vote himself but to see his neighbors before the fifth of November, and tell them all to vote too.

We know that there are many Democrats in the State who do not like to vote for Horace Greeley. But we ask them for the sake of the cause to go to the polls and vote against Grant.

If every opponent of Radicalism will go to the polls on the fifth of next month, and vote for Greeley, we can carry North Carolina by a handsome majority.

We lost the State election before by sheer indifference. It is time that we had been awakened from our supineness. It is time that we had some appreciation of the magnitude of the present issues. It is time that North Carolinians should arouse from their inglorious slumbers, and put forth the majesty of their strength in the cause of right and justice and reform.

It is the imperative duty of every freeman in the land to cast his vote, when great issues and sacred principles are at stake.

The apathy of others does not absolve you from your obligations to your country and to yourself.

First, then resolve to vote yourself, and secondly, see that your neighbors vote also.

A Kentucky man in twenty years drank seventy three barrels and some odd quarts of wiskey.

A San Francisco journal states that a wealthy miner has fallen in love with Mrs. Fair and will marry her.

WORDS OF CHEER.

We published yesterday an account of the conference between a number of members of the National Democratic Executive Committee recently held in New York. Senator Ransom of this State was the only representative from the South. At this conference the fact was developed that our friends at the North are still hopeful of a victory in November.

We have published extracts from the cheering address of the Liberals and Democrats, of Ohio, which show that the loss in our vote in the recent election was owing to the failure of Democrats in several leading Democratic Counties, to go to the polls, because of an impression that the Liberal Republicans would not sustain our State ticket. It is claimed now that these apathetic Democrats will vote in November, and that Mr. Greeley will also get from six to eight thousand more Republican votes than were cast for our candidate in the State election. Hence, the Executive Committee of the Liberal and Democratic parties think they have good grounds for claiming Ohio for Greeley and Brown.

We publish elsewhere an extract from the address of the Liberal Republican State Committee of Indiana, from which it will be seen that our friends there have gone to work to secure that State in November.

In our Northern exchanges, we find many words of cheer and encouragement.

If the Southern States, which have a white majority, will follow the example of Georgia, we are confident that Mr. Greeley will receive enough votes in the electoral College from the North to make his election sure.

There is every incentive for North Corolinians to work. Our State may decide the contest.

Let the cheering intelligence of the spirit and activity which pervade the canvass in other States, arouse our people to a sense of their duty.

Remember that the loss of North Carolina to the Liberal cause may re elect President Grant.

Much depends on our State. Much is expected of us. We have the power to win. Let us see to it that we do win on the fifth of November.

THE PITT INFAMY.

We call attention to the article elsewhere from the Kinston Gazette, in relation to the conduct of certain Radicals in Pitt county. The letter of Cox referred to by the Gazette as being first published in the DAILY NEWS, was subsequently copied in the New York Tribune, and Washington Patriot, with appropriate comments.

The criticism of the Gazette is severe, but well deserved.

We can have no civil liberty in this country when private quarrels are made the instruments for political persecutions.

In our leader yesterday, we ventilated at some length the cruelty of the Radical system of issuing blank warrants for the arrest of individuals to gratify partisan malignity and spite. We denounced the custom as shameless and unblushing despotism, and as a Radical innovation which demanded the severest condemnation.

We are glad to see that the Pitt county infamy is attracting the attention of our Northern cotemporaries. Few of our Northern fellow citizens have the remotest idea of the oppression which crushes the energies and hopes of the Southern people.

KEMP P. BATTLE, ESQ.

At the election held in the Commons Hall for the election of President of the President of the North Carolina Agricultural Society, Mr. Battle, who has held the position for the last two years, peremptorily declined, under any circumstances, to allow his name to go before the Committee.

Thomas M. Holt, Esq, of Alamance, was elected in his stead. This is a good selection.

Mr. Battle has made a most efficient and zealous President, and we exceedingly regret that he would not consent to a re-election. He has labored faithfully to promote the interest and success of the Society, and we are glad to know that his efforts are highly appreciated.

REGISTRATION.

We have before stated that the law in regard to voting in November is the same substantially as it was in the State election.

Persons must register before the day of election.

No registration is allowed on election day unless the voter has arrived at the age of twenty-one on that day, or can show some other good cause why he is entitled to register.

Each voter must vote in his own township.

Tickets must be printed on white paper, without device.

Hartranft's majority is now put up to thirty-six thousand. The Philadelphia Age does not know that there is any impediment to putting it up to a million.

They are having husking bees in Minnesota, and pine for New England pumpkin pies and sweet cider to enliven them.

The population of Paris has, it is reported, decreased 400,000 in six years, and property has depreciated twenty per cent.

INDIANA.

An extract from the address of the Liberal Republican State Executive Committee of Indiana;

The old organization has lost in every State in which there has been an election since Horace Greeley was nominated. It has only saved itself from desperate defeat by desperate efforts. It has had the Secretary of the Treasury, and the Treasury itself, at work upon the stump and at the polls. Every device that mendacity and money could devise has been employed. The meagre results to the Grant party of such lavish outlay is a rebuke more powerful than a more conclusive defeat under an honorable canvass. To succeed as we have against such oposition is a victory indeed.

A few weeks yet remain in which we must labor with even more tireless effort. The people of Indiana believe in the mission of the Liberal Republican party. They accept its platform as the wisest and best ever presented by a party. It has every principle of the old party worth preserving expressed with rugged force and it adds [a principle that the canvass from the beginning of the State Conventions to the present time has justified, that the President of the United States should not be a candidate for re election. The evils and dangers of having an army of 60,000 office holders and 200,000 serviceable subordinates under pay of the Government attempting to control nominations and elections so as to keep themselves in place, have been fully demonstrated.

The vital difference between the platforms is something grander than tariffs or the common place utterance of parties. We seek the universal equality of men. Freedom and the ballot for the white man with the black. We seek a substantial peace, hearty fraternization of North and South, and a pure civil service. For this we fight, and by this sign we shall conquer. Our effort has been and must be to show the people that we can better secure these beneficent results than can the old party, burdened with barnacles, festering with corruption, and permeated with barbarous prejudices.

The duty to which we are called, is as imperative and honorable as that to which we responded when the country needed us as soldiers. Let us conscientiously give ourselves to the labor before us, without bitterness, without attempting to follow the leaders of the old party in their disreputable course. They may do their worst abusing Liberal Republicans and Liberal Republicanism. Their venom is harmless. We are fighting for a principle that sooner or later must succeed. Let us bear ourselves so that we shall deserve success. They who win success unfairly, or will struggle only when success is assured, are alike unworthy to succeed.

A noble cause demands our service. It is the cause of humanity and patriotism. Our principles are patriotic and unselfish. Our candidate, Horece Greeley, is the type of man America delights to honor—the honest, self-made, representative man. Forward, then, men of Indiana! With proper effort we shall win a victory nobler than that of bloody fields, and more enduring than monuments.

ANOTHER TOUR AROUND THE WORLD.—Prince Hassan, son of the Khedive of Egypt, is about to start on a tour around the world, and it is expected that he will be absent for three years. The Khedive is doing well. The Sultan is not his equal in ambition and daring.—The Czar does not surpass him. SATURDAY.....OCTOBER 19, 1872.

STATE MATTERS.

THE trade of Wilson is said to be very good.

THE young people of Wilson intend having a tournament soon.

THE stockholders of the Wilmington Charlotte and Rutherford raidroad have been in session in Wilmington this week.

THE new ball room at the Wilmington Opera House was opened Thursday evening, the occasion of the Israelitish ball.

THE three hotels of Goldsboro are making extensive preparations to accommodate the visitors to the Goldsboro Fair next week.

THE new Sheriff of New Hanover, Mr. A. R. Black, has qualified. The Wilmington Journal says that he will make an honest, capable and faithful officer.

DR. A. D. MOORE, of Wilson, had his horse and buggy stolen from him on Thursday night last. He was visiting a patient at the time, so we learn from the Ledger.

A FRANKLIN county undertaker who was not used to conducting funerals, recently rose at the conclusion of a funeral address and said that the corpse would now go round and take a last look at the mourners.

THE Wilmington Star says: "A new feature in the cotton trade has developed itself in this city. Formerly all the cotton passing the hands of our merchants found a lodgment in some Northern port, when a great deal of it was shipped to Europe, but here recently many have adopted the wise course of shipping the staple direct to Liverpool themselves, thus realizing the profits which were before divided with the Northern shippers.

"Of couse cotton shipments from this port to Europe cannot at present be made to any great extent, as only a few of the larger vessels will receive it; but every opportunity for so doing is made use of, and we hope the day is not far distant when all the cotton, like the most of our naval stores, will be enabled to find direct shipment to the manufacturers of Europe. Among the late shipments we notice that the Baruqentine Leonora, which was cleared for Liverpool by Messrs. Vick & Mebane on the 12th, took out 294 bales, and Messrs. Williams and Murchison are about shipping a quantity to the same place by one of the foreign vessels now in port."

THE Newbern Times, of Wednesday, gives the following full account of the fearful accident which recently occurred near Newbern, partial accounts of which we have already published. Says the Times:

As the down freight train on the A. & N. C. R. R. started from Dover yesterday morning, about 10½ o'clock, and while the up mail was waiting for the train to pass out of the way, a sharp explosion was heard, like the report of a rifled cannon, and upon examination it was found that Conductor Bridgers Arendell, of Morehead City, Engineer Alpheus Faison, and Simon Bonner, colored fireman, of Newbern, were the victims of the demon, steam.

We give below the particulars as related to us by an eye witness on the mail train:

"The engine of the freight train, the Colfax, I noticed as we came up, was blowing off steam, as usual, and everything was very quiet. Conductor Arendel was busy superintending the loading of freight, and as pleasant as usual. I noticed him jump on the engine, and heard him give the signal to go ahead. The Colfax whistled 'off breaks,' and her bell struck as she moved ahead. The train had gone but a short distance when I heard a sharp report, like a rifled cannon shot, and supposed that a keg of powder had exploded in a freight car, and upon repairing to the scene of the disaster I found that the boiler of the locomotive had been blown into fragments, and the three following named employes were killed, and the other two injured."

Alpheus Faison, engineer, was instantly killed, a small piece of iron being driven through his head, entering the left ear and coming out at the right, and his left leg blown off, and his clothing all torn into shreds. He was a native of Raleigh, 35 years of age, and was formerly employed on the South-side road of Virginia, and the Raleigh and Gaston road of this State, and has been on the Atlantic and North Carolina road about four years. He leaves a wife and two children—a boy and girl—ages, respectively 7 and 10 years.

Bridgers Arendell, conductor, lived but a few moments after the accident, his clothing was completely torn off; he received a bad cut in the left side near the short ribs, his face also was badly cut and the whole skin surface of his body was very badly scalded. The explosion threw his body back a distance of twenty feet, coming down on the railroad track and ties, which must have caused fearful internal injuries.—Mr. Arendell was born in Morehead City, where his family now resides; he was 52 years of age, and leaves a wife and four children, the youngest being eleven months old.

Simon Bonner, colored, fireman, had his left leg blown off below the knee, and was badly scalded in the lower limbs. He was taken to Kinston on the mail train for medical attention, but died about noon. He was 30 years of age and leaves a wife and two children. He resides in this city near the Depot.

Alfred Brit, oiler, was engaged in the front of the Engine, at the moment of the explosion, and escaped with a slight scald in the neck.

Moses Bryan, Brakeman, was on a flat-car in the rear of the tender, and was thrown from the car, but not seriously injured.

The engine was the "Colfax," and owned by the U. S. Government during the war, running under the name of "Vulcan."

The bodies of the victims were brought down yesterday evening, that of Mr. Arendell was taken in charge by his friends, and removed to Morehead City, leaving on the train last night.

The body of Mr. Faison will be taken to Raleigh for interment, and the body of Simon Bonner will be interred in this city. The sympathies of the entire community are with the families in their sad bereavement.

THE editor of the Tarboro Southerner is closely canvassing Edgecombe county.

THE Goldsboro Fair will conclude on the 25th inst. with a tournament.

THE Robesonian advocates the name of Col. Col. Robert Strange, of Wilmington, for the U. S. Senate.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Petersburg Progress, writing from Weldon, says: "Weldon is alive just now, and 'cotton is king' here. The crops of Halifax and the neighboring counties while not up to the expectation of the planter in July and August, are better than was supposed a short time ago, and will equal the crop of last year; it is being pushed rapidly to market to satisfy mortgages which have been given on the crop in large majority of cases, either to the merchants of Weldon, Petersburg or Norfolk. The mortgage plan seems to give satisfaction to planter and merchant.

"Next to cotton the absorbing topic is the Fair, which promises to be a success. The people are alive to its importance, and are sparing no pains or money to add to its attractions. Many fine blooded and race horses have been entered already. There will be a race every day and a base ball match and a tournament and ball on the last day."

Infamous.

Last week we alluded to the arrest of a large number of the citizens of our sister county of Pitt charged with obstructing the administration of the laws of the Government by an armed mob, and placing the officers of the law in a helpless condition.

The warrants were duly served, and some fifty of the best citizens of Pitt county were from their homes to Goldsboro, and after a patient and searching ing investigation of all the charges made against them before U. S. Commissioner Robinson, that officer pronounced the whole thing an infamous farce, and all of them were duly released and permitted to return to their homes.

This whole thing, as before asserted, and fully substantiated by the investigation, grew out of personal difficulties between Calvin Cox and Mr. S. E. Hines in one instance, and —— Roach and Mr. F. M. Smith in another instance, and the execution of law had no direct connection with the matter whatever. And yet Calvin Cox, U. S. Commissioner, and Ed. Smith, Special Deputy United States Marshal, in order to wreak personal spite against an enemy that they dare not openly approach, and in a manner cover up the action of their friend in the sad affair used as a pretext for their joint letter to Sam Carrow, could swear that these fifty of the best citizens of Pitt county were in mob array and defiant of Government authority.

It needs no shrewd discernment to the gist of the whole matter. Pitt county was carried by fraud in the late election which it was easy to substantiate by the undoubted testimony of many of these gentlemen, and in order to punish them for their knowledge of the facts, and to intimidate them and others from voting in the approaching election they hoped to carry the county overwhelmingly in November. But they have failed; and thanks to our able cotemporary, the Raleigh NEWS, we are able to lay before our readers the able (?) letter of appeal sent by Cox & Smith to Sam Carrow for troops to terrify the good people of Pitt. It is a production worthy of the men who wrote it, and the unmitigated tyrant they have sought to serve; and, while it was never intended by these worthies that said letter should ever be brought to light of day, we respectfully suggest to the News that as Cox is by the same fraud which he has sought to hide, to be the one to misrepresent the persecuted people of Pitt, to have copies of this letter circulated among the members of the Ligislature that they may properly know the man who goes to associate and deliberate with them as a member of their body. —Kinston Gazette.

Poor Arkansas.

The scene of Radical outrage and lawlessness has been transferred from the two Carolinas to Arkansas. Under the control of the Governor and the leading United States Senator, that State has become almost a hell on earth. Their myrmidons go about the country inciting the ignorant and turbulent negroes to deeds of violence and bloodshed. The militia of Clayton, sent ostensibly to certain localities for the purpose of preserving the peace, stir up strife. The officers of the law are likewise fomenters of discord. The citizens flee for their lives and try to secure their property from the vandals. Negroes, under the stimulation of the very worst and most seditious white men, make attacks on passing vessels with a view of forcing passage to Osceola, now the principal scene of the Radical warfare. The citizens of this town who have not fled are obliged to keep arms in their hands to protect their families from insult and outrage.

This is a deplorable state of things. For it the Radical party alone is responsible. Both Mississippi and Pope counties, where the devils of Clayton are doing their worst, are occupied by a quiet, law abiding people. These outrages are gotten up for political effect By giving their party a pretext for declaring a state of war, a reign of terrorism has been established which they hope will be sufficient to give the State to Grant next month. If the Democrats and Liberals can be kept from the polls in considerable numbers, of course he will carry it. That is the game, but we hope it will be check-mated by the gallant Arkansians turning out en masse and voting for Greeley and their country's liberties, unawed, calm and invincible in the face of their foes.—Wilmington Star.

The Cubans let no opportunity pass without showing by word or deed their bitter detestation of Spanish rule in the "Ever Faithful Isle." A new plot, having for its object the overthrow of the hated Peninsulars, has been discovered. Eight of the conspirators have been executed, others sentenced to imprisonment for life, while many more are yet awaiting trial and will probably meet with a similar doom. There appears to be no limit to Spanish cruelty; it fairly revels in the blood of its victims.

Those resolute women who go away out on the frontiers to live are not to be trifled with when they get there. A married man in Idaho tried the little experiment of eloping with a fascinating young girl, and his indignant wife pursued and overtook him, and having administered a severe castigation, bore him home in triumph.

SPECIAL FEATURES AND ADVANTAGES.

1st. No restriction on Residence or Travel.

2d. No extra charge on lives of Females.

3d. Policies incontestable after Five Years

4th. The rates of Interest on the Funds of the Company are higher than those on the Funds of Companies located in other States, thus insuring larger Dividends to Policy Holders.

5th. The Directors and Officers of the Company are prominent NORTH CAROLINIANS, who are KNOWN to be men of INTEGRITY and WORTH.

6th. The Company is established on a solid and permanent basis, steps having been taken to increase the Capital Stock to $500,000.

7th. ALL THE FUNDS OF THE COMPANY ARE INVESTED IN THIS STATE AND CIRCULATED AMONG OUR OWN PEOPLE. This fact should commend the Company, above all others, to North Carolinians. It is well known that hundreds of tuousands of Dollars in Life Premenms are annually sent North to enrich Northern Capitalists, thus continually draining our people of immense amounts which should be kept at home. On this ground the friends of this Company confidently appeal to every son of the Old North State, and ask their support for this HOME INSTITUTION, which, while it offers substantially all the advantages of Northern Companies, helps to build up HOME INTERESTS.

Up to the first of January, 1872 it has attained a present membership of 62,458 persons. It has paid to the beneficiaries of deceased members, $13,109,623.09.

It has returned to policy holders, from time to time, surplus premiums and interest amounting to an average of over 50 per cent. of the nominal premiums charged upon policies. It has at risk the sum of $182,785,236,80.

$16,249,612.32,

Ratio of expenses to total receipts (for 25 years) 9 17-100

Ratio of expenses to receipts, (for the year 1871,) 8 12-100

Gross assets accumulated up to 1872,

$31,978,401.66.

Its total liabilities, by the highest standard of solvency, amounts to $26,307,626,92.

Its surplus, after providing for every contingency, is $5,670,764.74.

This record of increased and unexampled accomplishment, at a reduced rate of expense, and of unimpaired and unsurpassed strength, is presented as a full justification of the claim of the Company to public confidence.

I offer for sale, five hundred and two (502) acres of land, situated in the county of Warren, on Shocco Creek, adjoining the Sulphur Springs. Tract of Col. J. M. Beck, on both sides of the Turnpike Road, leading from the Sulphur Springs to the flourishing Town of Ridgeway, on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, and nine miles from the latter place. There is an Overseer's House, three cabins, corn-crib and stables on the premises. About one-fourth (¼) of the tract is in original growth of oak, hickory, &c., one-fifth in second growth pines. The soil is sandy, loam and chocolate—surface undulating—well watered, and about 80 acres of rich bottom land. It yields excellent crops of corn, tobacco, wheat, oats, clover, &c. This is one of the best tracts of land in this section, and will be sold on reasonable terms.

Dr. George Fields, who resides near the land, will take pleasure in showing it to persons wishing to examine it, and is authorized to negotiate for its sale

SATURDAY.....OCTOBER 19, 1872.

NOBODY'S DARLING.

Little and pallid, and poor and shy,
With a downcast look in her soft gray eye;
No scornful toss of a queenly head,
But a drooping bend of the neck instead;
No ringing laugh, and no dancing feet,
No subtle wiles, and abandon sweet,
No jewels costly, no garments fine—
She is nobody's darling but mine!

No "Dolly Varden" coquettish airs,
No high-heeled boots to throw her down stairs;
No yachting jacket and nautical style,
With a sailor's hat that she calls her "tile."
But "Lady" is stamped on her quiet brow;
And she crept in my heart I can't tell how;
Not made to dazzle—not born to shine—
Nobody's—nobody's darling—but mine!

No saucy, ravishing, girlish face,
But a settled calm on the sweet, pale face;
No sparking chatter and repartee;
Very silent and still is she.
White and still is my pearl of pearls,
Yet to me she seemeth the queen of girls;
Why I love her I can't define,
For she's nobody's—nobody's darling—but mine!

Were riches hers, or a beauty rare,
She would lose her charm and become less fair;
Were rings to shine on those fingers small,
They could not add to their grace at all;
She would learn to smile and speak by rule,
In the foolish book of Dame Fashion's school;
And the world to spoil her would soon combine,
Now she's nobody's darling—but mine!

THE WORLD'S FAIR

TO BE HELD AT

Raleigh, Thursday, October 24.

OLD JOHN ROBINSON'S

GREAT TRAVELING MUSEUM, MENAGERIE, CARAVAN, AND HIPPODROME,

COMBINED WITH THE GRAND

International Zoological Garden, Polytechnic Institute

AND MAMMOTH CIRCUS

IN FOUR TO TEN TENTS,

As the space of the Grounds will permit
JOHN ROBINSON, Pro'r and Gen. Director.
JOHN ROBINSON, Jr., Manager.

This Gigantic Enterprise, which has been at a vast expenditure of time and money thoroughly re-organized and equipped for the present traveling season, presents the Startling, Novel, Unique and Collossal Spectacle never before witnessed in the annals of amusement enterprise either in this or any other age, of

TWELVE SUPERIOR SHOWS IN ONE.

All for a Single Price of Admission.

In the collection and organization of the Museum the utmost care has been taken to gratify and enlighten the public by presenting in One Vast Assemblage an accumulation such as has never been attempted or dreamed of by the combined tact, talent and liberality of all other managers in America or Europe. It may be interesting for the public to understand that for nearly Two Years Mr. Robinson's numerous Agents, who are found in almost every part of the world, have been actively employed in procuring Curiosities for his Great Traveling Show. Some of these were put on exhibition for the first time last year; but they have been largely supplemented for the present season by new accessions and consignments brought by almost every steamer from foreign Ports which has arrived in New York for the past eight months. As an illustration of the Indomitable Energy of the well known Proprietor of this establishment, it may be well to remark that the Exhaustless Resources of Europe, Asia, Africa and America, with the subdivisions of China, Japan, Australia, the Polar Regions, South Sea Islands, Arabia, Turkey, Siam, Circassia, Egypt, the Pacific, Arctic, Indian and Atlantic Oceans, together with the Red Sea and Holy Land, have all been levied into, contributing to swell the aggregate of this single Department, which, after all, constitutes but a moiety of all that may be seen.

It is estimated that in the Aquarium, Museum, Menagerie and Caravan there are Twenty-Thousand Curiosities.

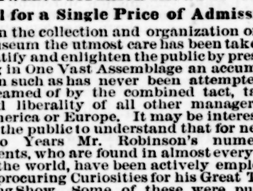
This Stupendous Combination has been brought together at an actual cost to the Proprietor of more than a million of dollars; which is ten times more than was ever invested in a single Show. The curiosities of the several departments represents the choicest excerpts from the realms of Zoology, Ornithology, Geology, Ichthyology, Conchology, Entomology, Anthropology, Mechanics, Numismatics, Science, Statuary, Oil Arts, and so classified for this Great Exhibition as to challenge the admiration not only of naturalists, but of poets, statesmen, philosophers and divines.

Parents, Sabbath and public school teachers should bear in mind that no public exhibition ever instituted in America afforded a tithe of the practical lessons of intuition which are found in this Unique Exposition of object teaching.

To this vast array is added, in a separate colossal Tent capable of holding Ten Thousand People,



MAGNIFICENT ROMAN HIPPODROME AND CIRCUS

With One Hundred Horses, Ponies, Camels, Mules, Riding Dogs, Monkeys, Trick Horses, Elephants, and Fifty of the best male and female Artists in the world.

If traveling by wagon would require the actual service of nearly two thousand men and horses, it is futhermore confidently believed by these most competent to judge, while the management are very emphatic in the statement that, taken in the aggregate, J. Robinson's World's Fair has more real and solid attraction, merit and value, with a greater variety of of marvelous features than is generally contained in twenty ordinary shows.

In order that the public may be able to form an approximating conception of the magnitude of this concern, we volunteer the statement that—which will be qualified at any time—the daily expenses attending John Robinson's Exhibition are three times more than the gross receipts of any of the self-styled first-class shows in America. It is, therefore, with no ordinary degree of confidence that the management announce that these Twelve Great Shows for only one price of admission are positively the largest ever seen on earth.

We respectively solicit the attention of the reader to the following enumeration of only the leading features of the Great Exhibition, as we have not the space to mention the Multitudinous Curiosities with which the entire Exposition so amazingly abounds: The Monster Sea Lions, from Alaska, nine in number, the largest weighing two thousand pounds, consume five hundred pounds of fish daily; the Egyptian Crocodile, twenty feet long; a Texas Steer with three horns and eyes; an Educated Hog, that can read and Talk; the largest Elephant in the world—actual weight five tons; a drove of Camels, Buffaloes, Bisons, Sacred Cattle, Llamas; Forty of the smallest Ponies ever seen; a Rhinoceros, or Unicon of Holy Writ, one of the most marvelous specimens ever imported—weight Eight Thousand Pounds, cost $15,000; a pair of Giant Ostriches, twelve feet high; South American Hippotamus, Harte Beast, Horned Horse, Capa Barn, Cashmere Goats, Ebony-Headed Palatine Sheep, Spotted Axis Deer, Bison, of Colorado, American Fallow Deer, South American Jaguar; Silver Lions, of California; Striped and Spotted Hyenas, Peruvian Alpaca; Llama, or Camel of the Andes; Puma or American Congar: American Buffalo, Virginia Panther, Badgers, Senegal Leopords, Australian Kangaroo; Rat Kangaroo of New Zealand; Tawmy Lion, of Zaffra; Shetland Cow, Babyrousa; the Zebu, or Ox Nanda; Spotted Tigers, Black Tiger, African Porcupines and Beavers, the whole forming the Most Magnificent collection of wild animals ever seen at one time.

IN THE ARENA

Will be introduced the following Unexampled Array of Equestrian, Acrobactic, Athletic and Gymnastic Talent:

The Great and Indomitable Robert Stickney, the Preferred Rider of the Paris Exhibition and the Champion Horseman of the World.

George M. Kelley, Champion Leaper.

John Wilson, the Great Four-Horse Rider.

M'lle Francis, The Great Exemplar of the High School of Equestrianism.

UNION SHUTTLE SEWING MACHINE.

AGENTS WANTED

In every county in North and South Carolina. Unparralleled inducements offered to Agents, larger commissions being paid than is done by any other Company.

This Machine is particularly adapted to those persons who are unable to purchase one of higher priced Machines, the prices ranging from $25 to $55. The UNION SHUTTLE is the only low-priced Lock-Stitch Machine that has any claim of merit in it. It stands without a rival for its durability strength and firmness of finish, making, at a low price, a Sewing Machine equal to the highest priced ones, and, in some respects, superior to them all.
